The Eldership

Who is responsible for the spiritual welfare of the local church? Indeed, the spiritual welfare of a congregation is a significant responsibility, and the elders are tasked with this solemn responsibility. Multiple words used throughout the Scriptures denote the office of the elders: bishop, pastor, and elder. "Bishop" is from the Greek word episcopos, which means "overseer." When we think of the word "pastor," we think of "pasture" and a shepherd overseeing a flock in that pasture. The Apostle Paul charged elders to "take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood" (Acts 20:28). Just as a shepherd oversees his flock, elders oversee a congregation. The word "elder" comes from the Greek word presbuteros which means "older," and, indeed, elders by their very nature must "not be a novice" (1 Timothy 3:6) and must be experienced Christians. Take time to notice other qualities of elders or bishops in 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9.

The North Beckley church of Christ has been blessed to have many men serve as elders throughout its history, and we hope our church can continue to be led by godly elders. What can we do to make their work easier? Let the Bible answer that: "Remember those who rule over you, who have spoken the word of God to you, whose faith follow, considering the outcome of their conduct" (Heb. 13:7). "Obey those who rule over you, and be submissive, for they watch for your souls, as those who must give account. Let them do so with joy and not grief, for that would be unprofitable for you" (Heb. 13:17).
